

8-22-1988

PEOPLE

The Boere move in on the nightlife of Hillbrow

By ADRIENNE SICHEL

Forget the Campbells... The Boere are coming (tra-la, tra-la) to The Brow. To No 58, nogal.

Leading this mainly Afrikaans cabaret onslaught on Hillbrow's nightlife is Stephan Bouver who has devised and directed "Van Berlyn tot Bapsfontein" subtitled "A Cabaret Concert/n Kabaret-Konsert".

Bouver's not so secret weapons in this venture, which opens to the public on Tuesday are Laurika Rauch (Elizabeth Zietsman for the Natal season) and Jannie du Toit.

Last year Bouver, whose crammed CV also reveals an actor with an MA on Tennessee Williams, a writer/poet/journalist and theatre director, left the SABC last year after 14 years as a prolific TV drama director.

His credits range from the popular comedy blockbusters "Dokter Dokter" and "Drama Drama" to strings of Chekhov, Strindberg et al and two operas.

His last TVI project was the current comedy series "Huisjakkie".

