

LAURIKA RAUCH

EXTENDED BIOGRAPHY

OCTOBER /NOVEMBER 2021

Laurika was born in Cape Town on the 1st of November as the youngest child of Fritz (Johnny) and Rina Rauch. Her father was the public relations manager for Old Mutual until his retirement and her mother was a trained social worker, the editor of Die Huisvrou magazine and was also very involved in charity work, especially amongst the elderly. Her siblings are Ingrid and Johan. She started playing the piano at the age of five, and sang alto in Oom Hannes Uys se Kindersangkring, a children's choir from Pinelands, for 10 years. Laurika matriculated from Jan van Riebeeck High School in Cape Town, studied drama at the University of Stellenbosch and obtained her degree in 1972. She moved to Gauteng in 1974 and became a household name in 1979 with the release of her first hit, Kinders van die wind. It was the first Afrikaans song in the late seventies to simultaneously reach the number one position on the Radio 5 and Springbok radio hit parades. Laurika was one of the most prominent singers involved in the revival of popular Afrikaans music /songs in the late seventies and early eighties.

She was an actress with PACT PLAYWORK in 1975-1976 under the leadership of Robin Malan. In the early eighties she also attracted attention with her interpretation of Jacques Brel's music with her performances in Taubie Kushlick's two Jacques Brel productions ('Encore Brel!' and 'The best of Brel') at the Chelsea Theatre in Hillbrow.

In August 1996 Laurika performed with the Transvaal Philharmonic Orchestra (renamed NAPOP, now disbanded) in the Opera of the State Theatre with a programme that consisted entirely of her own repertoire. Both performances were sold out.

Laurika has performed in Belgium, The Netherlands, Germany, London, the Czech Republic, New Zealand and Australia. In December 1993 she performed for an audience of 13 000 people in Utrecht, accompanied by the well-known Metropole Orchestra. In March 1997 the Charles University in Prague invited her and her pianist (Fanie Fouché) to represent Afrikaans as the youngest member of the Dutch language group to an audience of academics from Europe and Eastern Europe. The performances formed part of the Department of Neerlandistiek's 75th Jubilee festivities at the university.

Laurika is married to Christopher Torr, the composer and writer of many of her hits, such as Stuur Groete aan Mannetjies Roux, Op Blouberg se Strand, Hot gates, Die Gang, Die mense op die Bus, My ou Tante Koba, Die Siener, Stille waters and many more. In 2011 Chris's first musical - Stuur groete aan Mannetjies Roux - was staged. It played to more than 50 sold out performances in four main centres. The film titled "Stuur groete aan Mannetjies Roux", which is based on the play, with Anna-Mart van der Merwe and Ian Roberts in lead roles, was released in 2013.

In September 2013 she toured to Australia and New Zealand. Laurika and her team visited and performed in Auckland, Brisbane, Melbourne and Perth. One of her highlights on this trip was that she had the opportunity to hug a Koala bear.

Laurika released her first album in 4 years, Wals, wals, Willemien in 2014, Die reis followed in October 2016 and Gunstelinge in October 2017. In 2018 she performed with Loki Rothman at the Festival voor het Afrikaans in Amsterdam. In 2019 she commemorated her 40 years in the music industry by releasing a limited edition (1000 signed copies) box set of 15 of her most loved albums, titled Laurika Rauch: 40 Jaar.

Chris and Laurika have two children - Simon and Nina, and two grandchildren.

A few 'firsts' for Laurika:

- 1976 The first commission she received was by Robin Malan for PACT to set Brecht's The Exception and the rule to music.
- 1979 Kinders van die Wind, her first hit song, was number one on the Radio 5 Hit Parade for five weeks. It remained on the Springbuck Radio Hit Parade for 11 weeks after it reached number 5.
- 1981 She took part in the first Afrikaans cabaret Met Permissie gesê (written by Hennie Aucamp) at the Market Theatre.
- 1981 She performed at the opening of the State Theatre.
- 1988 She was awarded the highly regarded Gallo Award in 1988. This award (for the best performance in a musical) was the first time that it was granted to an Afrikaans production (Van Berlyn tot Bapsfontein).
- 1990 Her Stuur Groete aan Mannetjies Roux was the first female Afrikaans album released on CD.
- 1997 She received a medal of honour (the first award of its kind) for her contribution to light Afrikaans music. Awarded by the South African Academy of Arts and Science.

- 1999 The first time that she included a multi-media track on a CD was on 19 Treffers van 21 Jaar. This was in the form of a screensaver on a home computer.
- 2004 The next CD with a multi-media track was My ou Tante Koba. Here two videos were included for the computer.
- 2004 She releases her and Johan Badenhorst's documentary DVD on the development of Afrikaans songs since the 1930s. Entitled Kom laat ons sing – 'n Musikale reis, this was one of the first Afrikaans DVDs to appear.
- 2011 She performs in the first musical written by her husband - Stuur groete aan Mannelies Roux.
- 2013 In September Laurika, accompanist Wessel van Wyk and her team travel to Australia and Auckland for the first time.
- 2014 Laurika performs at the first RSG/LEFRA Oppiwater Arts festival
- 2013-15 Laurika adjudicates for the Ghoema-awards
- 2014 She sings 'Die mense wat ek lief het' for a Huisgenoot advertisement

Their only (but very successful) publication appeared in March 1999 as Laurika Rauch: Treffers vir Klavier en Kitaar. The 17 songs were arranged by Peter M^cLea for piano and guitar and for a middle register voice. The book was linked to her album 19 Treffers van 21 Jaar which was also released in 1999. Laurika Rauch: Treffers vir Klavier en Kitaar also contained photographs and information about Laurika's career, which at that stage stretched over 21 years. Two separate musical pieces were also arranged: Die mense op die Bus and Kabouterliefde. The book is now out of print but still electronically available from her website shop at:

<https://www.laurikarauch.com>.

- Laurika's official Youtube channel can be enjoyed and subscribed to at <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCKkyPN2KOF29HX9-bEnsKig>.
- She launched her first website in July 2001. The website has enjoyed four complete revisions in 2004, 2011, 2014 and 2018. <https://www.laurikarauch.com>.

Her latest website is being maintained and designed by Tania Fourie of websitevision.co.za
